

I urge you not to weaken ownership rules. The FCC needs to ensure that unbiased and factual news reporting can still be attained and offered to the citizenry of the U.S. We already have enough of the news, music and television being controlled by a small group of ownerships that we certainly don't need more of this control being placed upon a FREE society.